

capable of living completely independently and who require a planned program of continual supportive services. Residents of an IGR receiving Section 8 assistance must not require continual medical or nursing care, must be ambulatory or not continuously confined to a bed, and must be capable of taking appropriate actions for their own safety in a emergency.

Resident assistant. A person who lives in an independent group residence and provides on a daily basis some or all of the necessary support services to elderly, handicapped, or disabled individuals receiving Section 8 housing assistance and who is essential to these individuals' care or well being. A resident assistant may not be related by blood, marriage, or operation of law to any of the individuals receiving section 8 housing assistance, and may not contribute any portion of his or her income or resources toward the expenses of these individuals.

Service agency. A public or private nonprofit organization that is recognized by the State as qualified to determine the supportive service needs of individuals who will reside in Independent Group Residences. The service agency may perform outreach to potential residents of Independent Group Residences and assist these individuals in applying for housing assistance, provide all or a portion of the supportive services and may identify and coordinate appropriate local, public or private resources to furnish these services. The service agency may own or sublease an independent group residence.

Service agreement. A written agreement, approved by the State, between the owner (including an entity with the right to sublease) of an independent group residence and the service agency or other entities providing the supportive services to the occupants of independent group residences. The agreement specifies the types and frequency of the supportive services to be furnished.

§ 887.463 Independent group residences: Selection preferences.

In addition to the preferences provided in § 887.155, a PHA may establish a preference for selecting an eligible applicant who has indicated a desire to reside in an independent group residence.

§ 887.465 Independent group residences: Additional lease requirements.

Leases for independent group residences must incorporate by reference the supportive services to be provided in accordance with the written service agreement between the owner and the service agency or other entities providing the necessary supportive services. When the owner provides the necessary supportive service, there is no service agreement and the provision of these services must be contained in the lease. The service agreement or analogous lease provisions must be approved in writing by the State before the PHA executes the housing voucher contract.

§ 887.467 Independent group residences: Housing quality standards.

The housing quality standards in § 887.251(a) apply to IGRs, except that the standards in this section apply in place of §§ 887.251 (a), (b), (c), (f), and (k).

(a) Sanitary facilities. The dwelling unit must contain and have ready access to a flush toilet that can be used in privacy, a fixed basin with hot and cold running water, and a shower or tub equipped with hot and cold running water all in proper operating condition and adequate for personal cleanliness and the disposal of human waste. These facilities must utilize an approvable public or private disposal system, and must be sufficient in number so that they need not be shared by more than four occupants. Those units accommodating physically handicapped occupants with wheelchairs or other special equipment must provide access to all sanitary facilities, and must provide, as appropriate to the needs of the occupants, basins and toilets, of the appropriate heights; grab bars to toilets and to showers and/or bathtubs; shower seats; and adequate space for movement.
